

Career Advisor
Skill Level 3-4 (SSG-SFC)

A Career Advisor is responsible for the, professional management and world-wide assignment of Soldiers within their assigned career field. They recommend career enhancing assignments, training, and NCOES development to Soldiers and commanders telephonically, or through written correspondence. The Career Advisor uses various systems to determine what personal needs there career field may have and what Soldiers are best suited for those assignments.