

Detachment Sergeant
Skill Level 4 (SFC)

The Detachment Sergeant position is similar to the First Sergeant except it is usually in units with less than 75 personnel. The Detachment Sergeant is responsible for providing sound advice to the commander on a wide range of topics including the health, esprit de corps, discipline, mentoring, well being, career progression, recognition, and professional development of all assigned enlisted members. Furthermore, working with fellow Senior NCOs and supervisors, the Detachment Sergeant ensures discipline is equitably maintained, and the goals of health, spirit de corps, discipline, mentoring, and welfare of the enlisted force are met. Detachments Sergeants hold formations, instruct platoon sergeants and assist the commander in daily unit operations. Though supervision of routine administrative duties, the principle duty is training Soldiers; must understand the organization's collective mission essential tasks during METL-based training; development of programs, performance counseling and other guidance to include mentor in developing subordinate NCOs.
