

Section NCOIC

The Section NCOIC serves as the Senior Intelligence Sergeant for an Intelligence Section at various assigned echelons. Supervises the daily operations of the section and manages the production, dissemination, and presentation of all intelligence products and briefings and advises the Officer-in-Charge on plans and operations in support of the echelons intelligence missions. Supervises the health, welfare, mentoring, and training of Soldiers assigned to the section, and develops, administrates, manages, and provides quality assurance of training plans and section training. Responsible for ensuring the administration of all assigned section Soldiers is complete and responsible for the maintenance, accountability, and deployment of assigned section vehicles and/or equipment.